PARIS. 1st October. 1884. Sour light is now thrown on the Pranco-Italian Convention,—the text of it was published yesterday by the Moniton. It is now certain that the fransfer of the Capital to another City than Turin was the condition expressly imposed by the French Government. A despatch from M. Drouyn de &c., facing the Military Nullah, and adjoining Lhuys to M. Malaret French Ambasender at Torin | the premises of H. Winnieung, Hent $80 per insists on the details of the negotiation; it is only bronth. Possession to be had on 1st November. after the Government of Italy had given sufficient 1954 guarantees accepting its proposition, he required a gage and exacted before hand the choice of a capital, that is to say, an implicit renuberation of the decree of the 20th March which declares Rome the Capital of Italy. The Unitarians were right in their suspicions, then this time again Turin had secoved orders from Paris.

It is an advantage ! Is it an evil for Italy ! It is evident there is something hidden on one side or the other: one of the two retkons on chance or that God who marvellously beloed K. Cavour and Italy, that is, that contradictions are as abundant as black berries. The signers of the Treaty who seem to abdicate all pretention to Rome, affirm in their report to the King that the promise not to commit or permit to be committed any attempt against the actual territory of the Holy seat, does and destroy the rights and the aspirations of the nation but that it indicates the necessity of operating by moral force alone to achieve the triumph of the National ides, but the National idea the richt, the a piration, are resumed in a single word "Rome" shall reconcile all this !

The new Ministry has accepted the convention the change of the capital, the integral inheritance o spirit and letter of the treaty of the 15th Sep. tember. One of the Ministers of the La Marmosa citimet, M. Jolien, had a long time cherished the idea of unification by moral force slune; he published - more than 18 months ago a brochure entitled "the Roman question at the beginning with water frontage. Also Storage may be and most popular works.) of 1863." in which he maintains that the obtained on application to Thouvenel programme—that which is not realised in the trenty of the loth Septemthere. "To abstain from all violent messuref respect the treaty and await the certain fall og the remains of the temporal power." Such is House. the programme, it remains to be seen if it is in harmony with the Imperial plan : this is just the three years, at moderate rental. painful part for the Italians. The treaty of the 1 ith September is then not of the Emperor -and in order that there should not be any doubt in the matter, he has taken rare to make M. Drouya de Lhuys and M. Thouvenel sign both Convention and despatches; it is the Imperial idea ished, containing Six Rooms, Buth Rooms, silent, the parliament will decide unless there is a W. H. ALEEANDER'S Residence. secret treaty which specially stipulates the ex-onpital of Tuscany. With the exception of Turin te. all the other towns of Italy approve of the Convention. Milan, Sjoily and Naples have sent in their adhesion, numerous meetings composed of men of all parties, have approved the convention; only the adherents all indicate Rome as the object to which more than even the desires, and the efforts of the Italians should tend. The convention is a sign of marked progress in the resurrection of Italy, said the meeting at Milan ; it proves the way for the realisation of the National programmes which cannot be accomplished without Rome. Naples makes use of nearly the same terms by approving the convention, -ahe affirms more energetically than ever the right of Italy to Rome, to Venice, and a stranne occurence took place at the Neapolitan meetg; all parties were represented, and for the first time they laid saids their former emmittes—the A West, with Four Rooms, enclosed Porch Remipiculae and the Consertonus shook hands Bathing and Dressing Rooms, Verandah all round, Musters fraternised with Sentenbrim, the fact will Outhouses, Garden, and enclosing Woll. Bont. uerhaps tend to prove that Naples has not lost all | $50 per month. paper of becoming the provincial capital of Italy; and of dethroning Florence, The Neapolitan deputies are numerous, the Piedmontess bear enmity towards Florence whose name was first mentioned. Naples is composed of noble edifices and palaces which might become houses of royal residence and ministerial offices; thus effecting a notable economy but then Naples does not occupy a central position the scoret hope is perhaps the cause of the toughing offusion which united for the instant the most irreconcilable enemies:

clear that one and all regard the convention as an act of hostility towards the Pope, the despatch of M. Drouyn de Lhyys to M. Sartiges would support the opinion. The Minister of foreign affairs accumulates the most police form-the guess of the French Government -it calls to mind the recent conflicts which arose between the Commanders of O HOUSES joining in corner of Hollywood the corps of accupation and the Pontificial au- & Road and Aberdeen Street, each has Six therities, and declares somewhat bitterly that the Splendid Rooms. prolongation of the eccupation would oblige the Possession can be given at once. rench Government to partake of the ruspousibility of acts which it disapproves under the courreay of words-much bitterness is perceptible. Drouny de Lhuya rap the knuckles of the Pont fical Government. In reaching the diplomatic document we say to ourselves, that France can no longer wish to prolong the existence of a Govern-ment similar to that which it so cloverly critirises and this is no doubt the dominant impression of the Italians, in fact, they say the evacuation in the restitution of Rome to the Ro mans; the pontifical Government will then enter into the ordinary situation of any other Government-the governed will be discontented the Pope who does not know how to make himself liked will hardly have the means to reign by torror;from that time the Romans will drive out an edious Government and masters of their own destimies will unite themselves to Italy. The French Coverment will no longer have recourse to arms to replace the Remans under the hand of the Pope any more, than it is to give back Tuscany and Naples to the Bourbons and the Hapspourg
